

Is there a special requirement for labelling?

Yes, depending upon the Category, processing and final use of the material, there are various labelling requirements (e.g. colour coding and specific wording) that must be met. Full details of these requirements are given in the relevant section of the ISIA/EDMA Guidance Document.